ANIL KSHETARPAL, J(Oral)

The petitioner has approached this Court by way of instant petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (for short 'Cr.P.C.') invoking its inherent jurisdiction for quashing of FIR No.101, dated 09.09.2014, registered under Section 66 of Information Technology Act, 2000, at Police Station PAU, Ludhiana and the consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise.

Notice of motion was issued.

In compliance of the order dated 24.04.2019 passed by this Court, the parties got their statements recorded before the learned Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Ludhiana. Consequently, a report dated 16.07.2019 along with statements of the parties has been received which is available on record of the case. Learned Magistrate has reported that the compromise is genuine, voluntarily and without any coercion or undue influence.

Learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned counsel for the State are ad idem that none of the petitioner is proclaimed offender.

After hearing the learned counsel for the parties and going through the record of the case, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case for exercising the inherent jurisdiction of this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C., so as to secure the ends of justice because the parties have arrived at an out of Court settlement by way of compromise. The compromise is without any pressure and a genuine one. In such a situation, continuation of the prosecution would result in sheer abuse of process of law.

For the aforesaid view, this Court finds support from Kulwinder Singh and others Vs. State of Punjab and another, 2007(3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and others (2012) 10 SCC 303, Considering the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case noted above, coupled with the reasons aforementioned and to secure the ends of justice, FIR No.101, dated 09.09.2014, registered under Section 66 of Information Technology Act, 2000, at Police Station PAU, Ludhiana and the consequential proceedings arising therefrom are ordered to be quashed, however, qua the petitioners only.

Resultantly, with the above-said observations made, the instant petition stands allowed.
