The present writ petition under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India has been filed for directing the respondents to release the petitioner on emergency parole of two weeks to attend the marriage of her brother's daughter.

The petitioner is only Bua of the girl who is getting married and not a immediate family member. The present application has been filed at the last moment, as the marriage is fixed for tomorrow.

In such circumstances, there is no occasion to entertain the prayer. Accordingly, the present writ petition is dismissed.
