CRM No.5861 of 2019

This application has become infructuous as the main case is listed for today itself.

CRM-M No.39094 of 2018

The present petition has been filed by the petitioner under Section 439 Cr.P.C. for grant of regular bail in case FIR No.0219 dated 19.07.2018 registered under Sections 420, 473 IPC and Sections 467, 468, 471 read with Section 120-B IPC added later on at Police Station Sector 19, Chandigarh.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has falsely been implicated in the case whereas he was not involved. The offence is triable by the Magistrate. The petitioner is in custody since 18.08.2018. which comes to more than 6½ months. Learned counsel further submits that complainant has been examined and he has not supported the case of the prosecution. There are total 18 prosecution witnesses. Trial may take time to conclude and no purpose would be served by keeping the petitioner in custody.

Learned counsel for UT Chandigarh has not disputed the custody period as well as stage of trial and also the fact that complainant has not supported the case of the prosecution.

Heard arguments of learned counsel for the parties and have also perused the contents of the FIR and other documents available on the file.

By considering that the petitioner is in custody since 18.08.2018; offence is triable by the Magistrate; there are total 18 prosecution witnesses; complainant has not supported the case of the prosecution; trial may take time to conclude; no purpose would be served by keeping the petitioner in custody, the present petition is allowed and the petitioner (Nanku Verma @ Nitin Verma) is directed to be released on regular bail on furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate.
