KULDIP SINGH, J. (ORAL)

Petitioner seeks emergency parole for his own marriage. It is stated that due to Model Code of Conduct on account of General Elections in country, authorities are not accepting his application.

Petitioner can always postpone his marriage after Model Code of Conduct is over. In these circumstances, petition is disposed of with a direction that if any application is filed by petitioner for releasing him on parole for the purpose of his own marriage after Model Code of Conduct is over, respondents shall consider same and decide same in accordance with law.
