AT CHANDIGARH

CRM M-41162-2019 (O&M)
Date of Decision : 01.05.2019

Parvesh

..... Petitioners

Versus

State of Haryana

..... Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJ SHEKHAR ATTRI

Present : Mr. Nirmal Singh, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Pawan Garg, AAG, Haryana.

Mr. Pankaj Katia, Advocate for the complainant.

RAJ SHEKHAR ATTRI, J. (Oral)

The petitioner has preferred the instant petition under Section 438 Cr.P.C. for grant of anticipatory bail in case FIR No.58 dated 15.02.2018, registered under Sections 307, 323, 506, 509 IPC (Section 307 IPC added later), at Police Station Butana, District Karnal.

Initially, the FIR was registered against the petitioner for the offences under Sections 323, 506, 509 IPC and at that time the petitioner was granted bail. The victim remained admitted in PGI, Chandigarh for medical treatment. Ultimately, the injury was found dangerous to life and Section 307 IPC was added Victim Manish Kapoor, who is present in court today, is still on the wheelchair and is undergoing surgery at PGI, Chandigarh. The petitioner is not ready to pay any compensation to the victim as he is a poor person.

Keeping in view the seriousness of the offence especially the injury suffered by the complainant, the petitioner is not entitled to bail.

As such, finding no ground to grant the benefit of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, the instant petition stands dismissed.

However, the victim is a poor person having no source of income, therefore, the Medical Superintendent, Post Graduate Institute of Medical Education & Research, Chandigarh, is directed to consider the representation dated 15.04.2019, filed by the victim through counsel and provide free medical treatment to the victim in accordance with the policy of the State/Central Government.
