It has been brought to the notice of this Court during the arguments that the petition for the custody of the child is already pending before the Guardian Judge, Chandigarh.

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that the Guardian Judge, which is not deciding the application/petition expeditiously and the matter has been pending for the last 9 months that is why this habeas corpus has been filed.

As the matter has already been pending for the last 9 months before the competent authority regarding the custody of the child i.e. before the Guardian Judge, therefore, this petition being not maintainable, is dismissed with direction to the Guardian Judge to expedite the proceedings pending before the Court.
