

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

CR-2892-2019 (O&M)
Date of decision : 3.5.2019

Pardeep Kumar Mehta

..... Petitioner

Versus

Dev Parshad and others

..... Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE KULDIP SINGH

Present:- Mr. J.S. Pannu, Advocate for the petitioner.

KULDIP SINGH, J.

Heard.

It comes out that PWs-7 and 11 have been examined in chief. Their cross-examination was deferred on the request of learned counsel for defendants. Now the plaintiff want to further examine the witness.

I am of the view that once examination in chief is complete ordinarily no opportunity is to be given for further examination of the witnesses. If the petitioner feels that the re-examination of the witnesses is to be done, he can always make appropriate prayer before the trial Court once the cross-examination is complete and it is for the trial Court to see whether opportunity is to be granted to the petitioner for re-examination of the witnesses. Accordingly, the present petition qua impugned order dated 17.1.2019, passed by learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), Hoshiarpur is dismissed.

Regarding the second order dated 23.2.2019 passed by learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), Hoshiarpur, it is prayed that statement of PW-

2 was recorded before lunch break and the same may kindly be completed.

In these circumstances without going into merits of the case and considering that these are the procedural matters, trial Court is directed to reconsider the application and pass a fresh speaking order on the same.

Disposed of.
