ANIL KSHETARPAL, J. (ORAL)

The petitioners have approached this Court by way of instant petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (for short 'Cr.P.C.') invoking its inherent jurisdiction for quashing of FIR No.0121 dated 05.04.2019 registered under Sections 324, 323, 34 of the Indian Penal Code at Police Station City Barnala, District Barnala (later on 326 of IPC added) and the consequential proceedings arising therefrom, on the basis of compromise.

Notice of motion was issued.

In compliance of the order dated 19.08.2019 passed by this Court, respondent No.2 is present in the Court, duly identified by his counsel. He has filed his affidavit in the Court today and admit the correctness of the compromise as also settlement arrived at between the parties.

After hearing the learned counsel for the parties and after going through the record of the case, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case for exercising the inherent jurisdiction of this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C., so as to secure the ends of justice because the parties have arrived at an out of Court settlement by way of compromise. The compromise is without any pressure and a genuine one. In such a situation, continuation of the prosecution would result in sheer abuse of process of law.

For the aforesaid view, this Court finds support from Kulwinder Singh and others Vs. State of Punjab and another, 2007(3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, approved by Hon'ble Apex Court in Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and others (2012) 10 SCC 303, Considering the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case noted above, coupled with the reasons aforementioned and to secure the ends of justice, FIR No.0121 dated 05.04.2019 registered under Sections 324, 323, 34 of the Indian Penal Code at Police Station City Barnala, District Barnala (later on 326 of IPC added) and the consequential proceedings arising therefrom, are ordered to be quashed, on the basis of compromise, however, qua the petitioners only.

Resultantly, with the above-said observations made, the instant petition stands allowed.
