AVNEESH JHINGAN, J (ORAL)

The present contempt petition has been filed alleging wilful disobedience of the order dated 06.03.2019 passed by this Court in CWP No. 28773 of 2018

The operational part of the order is reproduced below:-

“In view of the above, without adverting to the merits of the case, the present petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent No.5 – Executive Engineer (C), Punjab Mandi Board, Grain Market, Fazilka to consider and decide the legal notice dated 20.10.2018 (Annexure P-2) within six weeks from the date of receipt of the certified copy of the judgment. In case, on consideration, the competent authority reaches to the conclusion that the benefit claimed by the petitioner is admissible to him, in such eventuality, the consequential relief be allowed to him, within a period of six weeks thereafter. However, in case the competent authority feels that the relief claimed by the petitioner is not admissible or made out, in that case, a speaking order be passed in the matter.”

As per office report, notice could not be issued due to non-filing of process fee.

At this stage Mr. Parambir Singh, Advocate has put in appearance on behalf of respondents No.2 and 3 and submits that one last opportunity be granted to comply with the order dated 06.03.2019, if already not complied. He assures that needful shall be done within eight weeks from today.

At this stage, the contempt petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent No.3 to do the needful within eight weeks from today.

In case of failure to comply with the order, the petitioner would be at liberty to revive the contempt petition which shall be at the cost and responsibility of the defaulting official.
