

Darshna Rani
Vs.
State of Haryana and others

Present: Mr. Amit Rao, Advocate for
Mr. Anurag Goyal, Advocate for the applicant-respondents No. 3 and 4.

Mr. N.K. Malhotra, Advocate for the non-applicant/petitioner.

RA-CW-224-2019

In the present review application, it is being contended on behalf of the applicant-respondents No. 3 and 4 that the non-applicant/petitioner is not entitled for leave encashment in view of the order passed by the Govt. of Haryana dated 14.08.2018 on the ground that the non-applicant/petitioner was not working on an Aided Post and was being paid salary out of the Management Funds and the order dated 14.08.2018 is only to be implemented on the posts, which were aided posts, which is clear from the said letter as 95% of the amount of leave encashment is paid by the State Government and the remaining 5% by the College.

Notice of the review application to the counsel opposite.

Mr. N.K. Malhotra, Advocate, who is present in Court, accepts notice on behalf of the non-applicant/petitioner and states that vide order dated 20.03.2019, the case of the employee is to be processed by the authorities keeping in view the order dated 14.08.2018 and in case the non-applicant/petitioner is found not entitled for, let the authorities pass an appropriate order so that the non-applicant/petitioner can have his own Learned counsel for the applicant-respondents No. 3 and 4 states that the appropriate order with regard to the entitlement of the non-applicant/petitioner will be passed keeping in view the order passed by the Govt. of Haryana dated 14.08.2018 after deciding his eligibility.

Learned counsel for the non-applicant/petitioner is agreeable for deciding his eligibility for the grant of benefit of leave encashment at the hands of the respondent-College keeping in view the letter of the Govt. dated 14.08.2018.

Learned counsel for the applicant/respondents No. 3 and 4 states that in view of the statement given by the counsel for the non-applicant/petitioner that the College will have full right to decide the eligibility of the petitioner first as to whether he is entitled to get the leave encashment or not vide letter dated 14.08.2018, the present review application is not pressed and be disposed of as such.

Review application is disposed of as not pressed in view of the facts recorded above.
