I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned State counsel and gone through the record.

From the record, I find that as per the prosecution version, the petitioner alongwith other co-accused snatched a Fortuner Car from the complainant. There is also allegation that a shot was also fired on the leg of the complainant. It has been brought to the notice of this Court that complainant, who had already appeared before the trial Court, has not supported the prosecution version and has turned hostile.

The petitioner is in custody since 20.12.2017. He is not required for any investigation or interrogation purposes as he is in judicial custody. The trial of case may take a long time. No useful purpose will be served by keeping the petitioner in custody till the final disposal of the case.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the present case; without discussing the facts in minute detail and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, this criminal miscellaneous petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail subject to his furnishing personal bonds in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties in the like amount each to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate.
