B.S. WALIA, J. (ORAL)

[1] Learned counsel contends that one Piyush Sharma had filed CWP No.4650 of 2018 claiming the same relief as has been prayed for by the petitioners but the said writ petition was dismissed. Thereafter, LPA No.760 of 2018 was filed by Piyush Sharma and the appeal was disposed of by granting permission to the appellant therein to make a representation to the authorities for sympathetic consideration of his claim and that pursuant to the decision of the representation by the authorities, the appellant was granted relief prayed for by him. Learned counsel further states that similarly CWP No.4155 of 2019 filed by Nandini Attri and another was disposed of by granting liberty to the petitioners therein to make a representation to the authorities for sympathetic consideration of their case and on consideration of their representation, the relief prayed for by them was also granted.

[2] Learned counsel states that in the circumstances, the petitioners be permitted to withdraw the writ petition with liberty to make a representation to the authorities who on receipt of the same be directed to decide the same sympathetically.

[3] In view of the statement of learned counsel for the petitioners, the writ petition is disposed of as not pressed at this stage while granting liberty to the petitioners to file a representation before the respondents who on receipt of the same would consider and decide the same sympathetically in accordance with the rules and regulations applicable as expeditiously as possible preferably within a period of two months from the date of receipt of representation.
