CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AVNEESH JHINGAN

Present: Mr. Rajnish K. Gupta, Advocate for the petitioner (In COCP No. 1915 of 2019).

Mr. Manoj Makkar, Advocate for the petitioner (In COCP Nos.1916 & 1917 of 2019).

Mr. Apoorv Garg, DAG, Haryana.

Mr. R.C.Bidhan, Director,
Deptt. of Skill Development and Industrial Training, Haryana.

AVNEESH JHINGAN, J. (Oral)

This order shall dispose of above three contempt petitions, as similar issue is involved. However, the facts are being taken from COCP

No.1915 of 2019.

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that in compliance of interim order dated 04.04.2019 passed in CWP No.9121 of 2019, the petitioner has joined.

It would be pertinent to note here that from 04.04.2019 till 30.08.2019, he was not made to join in spite of the fact that the interim directions were continuing. The only stand taken by the respondents was that they had moved an application for vacation of stay, but it is not disputed that the said application was not allowed and stay continued to be in operation.

On the last date of hearing, it was submitted that the monetary benefits arising to the petitioners from 05.04.2019 till vacation of stay (if vacated) would be paid.

The Director General, Haryana Skill Development and Industrial Training, Panchkula was ordered to remain present in Court, to inform this Court as to who would be the official from whom, the amount paid to the petitioners without getting any work would be recovered.

Mr. R.C.Bidhan, Director, Deptt. of Skill Development and Industrial Training, Haryana states that the matter would be looked into and defaulting officer would be pinpointed and the payment made to the petitioner from 05.04.2019 till 29.08.2019 would be recovered from the said official/officers.

In view of the above, contempt petitions are disposed of. However, compliance report in all the three petitions with regard to the action taken against the defaulting officers/officials would be filed in Court within three months from today.
