This appeal has been filed by the appellant challenging the judgment and decree dated 22.04.2019, passed by the learned Additional District Judge, Gurdaspur whereby the judgment and decree dated 30.05.2017, passed by the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), Batala, in favour of the appellant-plaintiff was set aside.

Learned counsel for the applicant-appellant submits that the matter, in the interregnum, has been amicably resolved between the parties and the appellant seeks to withdraw this appeal. It is further stated that the appellant does not stake any claim of title to the passage in question in these proceedings. The mutation in respect to the passage, it is submitted, has been sanctioned in favour of the Gram Panchayat. CM-13162-C-2019 has been filed for withdrawal of this appeal.

Keeping in view the averments as above, application is allowed and the appeal is dismissed as withdrawn.

Needless to say, the said compromise does not in any manner vests the appellant with any right of ownership or title to the passage in question.
