

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

FAO No.3332 of 2019 (O&M)

Date of decision: 17.07.2019

Reliance General Insurance Co. Ltd.

...Appellant

Versus

Savita Mehta and others

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE H.S. MADAAN

Present: Mr. Sanjeev Kodan, Advocate for the appellant.

H.S. MADAAN, J. (Oral)

Learned counsel for the appellant has contended that the tribunal has deducted Rs.343/- from the income of the deceased towards income tax liability, however, as a matter of fact, the amount should be more than that and further, the future prospects have also been granted on the higher side. Section 152 CPC provides that clerical or arithmetical mistakes in judgments, decrees or orders or errors arising therein from any accidental slip or omission may at any time be corrected by the Court either of its own motion or on the application of any of the parties. The appellant has approached this Court directly without taking recourse to that remedy. Under the circumstances, the appeal is disposed of, relegating the appellant to the remedy of approaching the Motor Accidents Claims Tribunal, Yamuna Nagar at Jagadhri to move appropriate application before it. However, if still aggrieved, the appellant may come to this Court again, as per law.
