AVNEESH JHINGAN, J. (Oral)

Order dated 14.10.2019 has been produced in Court by learned counsel for the respondent. The same is taken on record, copy of the order is handed over to learned counsel for the petitioner. As per the said order, an amount of ₹7,35,961/- was found due towards arrears apart from provident fund amount. The draft for the said amount has been handed over to the learned counsel for the petitioner in Court and a photocopy of the same is retained.

Learned counsel for the respondents submits that the amount of provident fund would be credited in the account of the petitioner within two months from today.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in view of the said development and statement made in the Court, no cause of action survives for pursuing the contempt petition. However, liberty is sought to avail remedies in accordance with law, if aggrieved of the calculations of the amount.

In view of the above, the contempt petition is disposed of. However, the petitioner would be at liberty to revive the contempt petition, in case, the amount of provident fund is not credited to the account within the time so specified.

Rule issued against the respondents is discharged.
