

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

COCP No. 2013 of 2019
Date of decision: 5.7.2019

Harmandeep Kaur and others

.. Petitioners

v.

Jaspal Kaur and another

.. Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AVNEESH JHINGAN

Present: Mr. P. P. S. Brar, Advocate for the petitioners.

...

AVNEESH JHINGAN, J. (Oral)

The present contempt petition has been filed alleging wilful disobedience of the order dated 13.11.2018 passed by this Court in CWP No. 19620 of 2014. The operative part of the order is reproduced below:

“It has further emerged that this arrangement of including variable component in the remuneration of the petitioners has been done with a view to motivate them to perform better. The stand of the respondents appears to be highly misconceived inasmuch as any decrease in the remuneration already being granted to the petitioners, by no stretch of imagination, can be said to be a motivating factor, rather the same would demotivate and demoralise the petitioners.

In view of the above discussion, this Court feels that order (Annexure P-7) is unjust and deserves to be set aside. Ordered accordingly. The arrears, if any, be paid to the petitioners within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this judgment.

Allowed in the above terms.”

As per the order quoted above, the respondents were directed that if the petitioners are entitled to any arrears, the same would be given to them within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of a certified copy of the judgment. There is nothing on record to show as to when certified copy of the was served upon the respondents.

Learned counsel for the petitioners seeks permission to withdraw the contempt petition at this stage to serve certified copy of the judgment dated 13.11.2018, if not already served.

Dismissed as withdrawn at this stage. There is no doubt that in case the needful is done, the respondents would consider the fact that the directions given to them were time bound.
