RAJ SHEKHAR ATTRI, J.

Lawyers are abstaining from work.

By invoking Section 482 Cr.P.C., the petitioners have prayed for quashing of FIR No.0013 dated 04.02.2016 under Sections 498-A, 406/34 of the Indian Penal Code, registered at Police Station Women, Old Faridabad and proceedings emanating therefrom, on the basis of compromise (Annexure P-2) arrived at between the parties.

In the present case, the FIR was registered on the statement of Ms. Sonia Sharma, D/o Sh. Ved Pal Sharma. Now, dispute between the parties has been resolved by way of compromise Annexure P-2.

Vide order dated 27.05.2019, the parties were directed to appear before the trial Court to get their statements recorded with regard to genuineness of compromise.

Pursuant thereto, a report has been submitted by the Civil Judge (Junior Division), Faridabad wherein it has been reported that statements of the parties have been recorded and they have voluntarily compromised the matter, without any coercion or pressure.

Respondent No.2 has not disputed that the parties i.e. petitioners and respondent No.2 (complainant) have arrived at a settlement with an intent to give burial to their differences.

Perusal of allegations in the FIR reveals that the present case squarely falls in the category of cases that can be quashed by the High Court, in exercise of its inherent power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. Keeping in view authoritative enunciation of law laid down by Hon'ble the Supreme Court in 'Gian Singh v. State of Punjab and another', 2012 (4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 543 and in the light of facts and circumstances discussed hereinbefore, this Court is of the considered opinion that continuation of criminal proceedings would amount to abuse of the process of law and it is expedient in the interest of justice that the same are put to an end.

For the foregoing reasons, the petition is allowed, FIR No.0013 dated 04.02.2016 under Sections 498-A, 406/34 of the Indian Penal Code, registered at Police Station Women, Old Faridabad and proceedings emanating therefrom stand quashed qua the petitioners.
