Learned State counsel submitting photocopy of cancellation report so to be filed in court contends that instant petition has rendered infructuous, in view of the fact that petitioners have suspected three persons, of whom polygraph test was got conducted and after thorough investigation, they have been found innocent. The cancellation report would be filed shortly within 4 weeks.

In view of the above, instant petition is dismissed as having been rendered infructuous with the direction to the investigating agency to issue notice to the petitioners informing them about the date on which cancellation report would be filed in court.
