TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA, J. (ORAL)

Petitioners seek a mandamus for directing the official respondents to take necessary steps to protect their life and liberty by voicing an apprehension and threat to the same against respondent No.6.

Counsel for the petitioners has been heard at length.

The averments made in the petition are utterly vague. There are no specific instances/occurrences on the basis of which this Court may infer any apprehension or threat to the life and liberty of the petitioners.

In the absence of the necessary pleadings in such regard, prayer made in the instant petition cannot be accepted.

Dismissed.
