ANUPINDER SINGH GREWAL, J (ORAL)

The petitioner is seeking anticipatory bail in FIR No.283 dated 15.05.2019, under Sections 182, 406, 420, 467, 468 and 471 IPC, registered at Police Station Suraj Kund, District Faridabad.

Learned senior counsel for the petitioner contends that the allegations against the petitioner are that he has fraudulently executed sale deed on 14.12.2016 on the basis of general power of attorney issued by the complainant to the petitioner. After the execution of the sale deed in the year 2016, the complainant had once again issued general power of attorney in favour of the petitioner in the year 2018. The dispute is civil in nature and the complainant has also filed a civil suit which is pending adjudication before the trial Court. He further contends that the matter is being compromised with the complainant and the petitioner has paid a sum of ₹9,75,000/- to the complainant and his brother.

This Court, by the order dated 19.09.2019, had directed the petitioner to appear before the Investigating Officer and join the investigation and in the event of his arrest, he was ordered to be released on ad-interim bail to the satisfaction of the Investigating/Arresting Officer, subject to the conditions envisaged under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.

Learned State counsel, on instructions from ASI Harshvardhan, states that the petitioner has joined investigation and is not required for custodial interrogation.

In view of the submissions of learned counsel for the petitioner and the petitioner having joined investigation, the order dated 19.09.2019 granting interim bail to the petitioner is made absolute.

However, the petitioner shall abide by the conditions stipulated under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C. He shall also join investigation as and when called upon to do so.

The petition stands disposed of.
