Prayer in this revision petition is for setting aside the judgment dated 03.03.2017 and order of sentence of the even date (Annexure P-3), passed by the Judicial Magistrate First Class, Malerkotla, vide which, the petitioner was held guilty for commission of offence punishable under Section 325 read with Section 34 of the IPC and was sentenced to undergo rigorous imprisonment for a period of one year and to pay compensation of Rs. 2,000/- to the complainant as well as judgment dated 10.05.2018 (Annexure P-1), whereby the appeal filed preferred by the petitioner was dismissed by the lower appellate Court.

During the pendency of the present petition, noticing the fact that the parties have entered into compromise, vide order dated 27.07.2018 passed in the connected case, the matter was referred to Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court for recording the statement of the complainant, wherein the complainant admitted to the factum of compromise entered into between the parties and a settlement deed dated 27.07.2018 was arrived at between the parties, according to which, in order to bring harmony between the parties and to normalize the relations between the complainant and the petitioner, who are neighbours and residing in the same vicinity, the compromise has been effected and the complainant is left with no grievance. Consequently, the sentence of the petitioner was suspended.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the total period of sentence awarded by the trial Court is one year, out of which, the petitioner has already undergone 03 months and 14 days and he is not involved in any other case. It is further submitted that the petitioner has already faced protracted trial.

In Sube Singh and another vs. State of Haryana and another, 2013 (4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 102, a Division Bench of this Court has held that even after the conviction, if the parties have settled the dispute amicably and have decided to live in peace and harmony, this Court, in exercise of powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C., can compound the offence.

Accordingly, while upholding the aforesaid judgment of conviction dated 03.03.2017 and considering the fact that the petitioner has been convicted only under Section 325 read with Section 34 IPC, the order of sentence of the even date is modified to the extent that the same is reduced to the sentence already undergone by the petitioner.

However, the parties shall remain bound by the terms and conditions of the aforesaid settlement.

Petition stands disposed of.
