MAHABIR SINGH SINDHU, J. (ORAL)

The present revision petition has been directed against the impugned judgment dated 31.7.2018 passed by learned Additional Sessions Judge, Fatehabad, vide which the appeal filed by the petitioner has been dismissed and the judgment of conviction as well as order of sentence dated 12.6.2015 and 15.6.2015, respectively, under Sections 389 and 120B of the Indian Penal Code, (for short 'IPC') of learned Judicial Magistrate First Class, Fatehabad, (for short 'JMFC'), has been affirmed.

CRR-3080-2018 (O&M)

Brief facts of the case are that prosecution was initiated on the basis of statement Ex.PW1/A made by Kulwinder Singh, PW1 with the allegations that about 4/5 days ago, he received a missed call on his Mobile No. 9416061100 from a Mobile number whose last digits were 04122, but he did not attend the same. Again after 2/3 days, he received a phone call from the same number and which he duly attended and caller was a female who revealed that earlier she was residing at Fatehabad, but now shifted to Sirsa. She further told that her father is a Truck Driver and asked him to get her marriage solemnized at Fatehabad with some Sikh boy. Upon this, PW1 asked her to come with her parents at Fatehabad. Consequently, on 21.11.2013, PW1 along with his friend Bahadur Singh visited Sirsa for some personal work and again received a call from the same number; upon which complainant along with his friend visited the house of that lady at Sirsa on Rania Road, near Girls High School. They found that a lady aged about 25 years along with a man of 28-30 years of age as well as a boy of 11 years in the house. The lady revealed her name as Soma and after some time, three more male members as well as one female came there and she made a noise that PW1 along with his friend Bahadur Singh have done wrong act with her. Upon this, complainant along with his friend got frightened and out of the accused persons, one Mani Ram, took them inside the room and asked to pay an amount of Rs.10 lacs otherwise, they would go to jail. Finally, the deal was struck at Rs.5 lacs and Mani Ram along with one Bhajan Lal accompanied the complainant in his Car which was parked at Bus Stand, Fatehabad and they visited the house of Gurdeep Singh from whom, complainant received Rs.2 lacs after narrating the entire story and handed over the same to above Mani Ram and Bhajan Lal. Complainant PW1 requested the above persons that he would make the remaining payment on next date, but they did not agree and asked him to pay the entire money. Further alleged that one more person, namely, Malkiat also came on the spot and he had a conversation with both Mani Ram and Bhajan Lal and then went away. Complainant along with Gurdeep also returned to their home. On next day, i.e. 22.11.2013, complainant borrowed Rs.1.50 lacs from his cousin brother, namely, Darshan for giving the same to accsued persons. On the same day, he received a telephone call from one Mobile number whose last digits were 33590 with a warning to pay the balance amount of Rs.3 lacs, otherwise, they would implicate him in a rape case. Complainant told the accused persons that he has arranged Rs.1.50 lacs and would make the payment of remaining amount shortly but they insisted him to make the entire payment of Rs.3 lacs. Consequently, FIR No. 665, dated 22.11.2013 under Sections 384, 389, 120-B IPC , Police Station City, Fatehabad, was registered.

After completion of investigation, report under Section 173 Cr.P.C. was submitted before the Court of competent jurisdiction and on the basis thereof, prima facie offences under Sections 384, 389 and 120-B IPC were made out and accordingly, the petitioner was charge-sheeted by the learned trial Court along with other co-accused but he pleaded not guilty and claimed trial.

In order to prove its case, the prosecution examined total 9 witnesses and also brought on record the documentary evidence.

The entire incriminating material was put before the petitioner under Section 313 Cr.P.C., wherein he denied the same and claimed innocence while pleading false implication.

After hearing both sides and perusing the record, learned trial Court held the petitioner guilty under Sections 389 and 120-B IPC while sentencing her as under:-

Under Section	Sentence	In default of Fine
389 IPC	Rigorous Imprisonment for a period of three years and fine of Rs.2,000/-,	To further undergo simple imprisonment for 1 month
120-B IPC	Rigorous Imprisonment for a period of one year and fine of Rs.500/-.	To further undergo simple imprisonment for a period of 7 days

Both the sentences were ordered to run concurrently.

Aggrieved against the judgment and order passed by the learned JMIC, an appeal was preferred by the petitioner, but the same was dismissed by the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Fatehabad, vide judgment dated 21.07.2018, hence the present criminal revision.

At the outset, learned counsel for the petitioner does not wish to challenge the conviction imposed by both the Courts below, but he confined the prayer only regarding the quantum of sentence.

It is contended by learned counsel for the petitioner that

CRR-3080-2018 (O&M)

FIR in the present case was registered on 22.11.2013, and he was convicted by learned trial Court on 12.06.2015 and thereafter, his appeal was also dismissed and now he is in the criminal revision against both the Courts below. Thus, the petitioner is facing the criminal proceedings for the last about 5½ years and as such he has already suffered a lot. Further contends that petitioner is the first offender as there is no other criminal case pending against him.

On the other hand, learned State counsel has opposed the prayer of the petitioner and submitted that petitioner does not deserve any leniency for reduction of his sentence and the present petition is liable to be dismissed in entirety.

Heard both sides and perused the record.

Custody certificate of the petitioner has been produced in Court by learned State counsel and the same is taken on record.

Perusal of the custody certificate reveals that petitioner has undergone the sentence of 2 years 4 months and 25 days including remissions of 2 months and 2 days out of total sentence of 3 years and during his custody he was having a good conduct in the jail premises and that is the reason that he has been granted the benefit of remission also. Since the petitioner has already suffered the agony of protracted litigation w.e.f. 22.11.2013 and being a poor person having the liability to maintain children of tender age, in the opinion of this Court, these can be considered as mitigating circumstances for the reduction of his sentence imposed by both the Courts below.

In view of the above, the conviction of the petitioner imposed by both the Courts below under Sections 389 and 120B IPC is upheld, however, the sentence is reduced to the period already undergone by him. Amount of fine, if not already paid, the same shall be deposited before the learned trial Court within a period of two months from today.

Disposed off in the aforesaid terms.

Pending miscellaneous applications, if any shall also stand disposed off.
