TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA.J (Oral)

Petitioners seek a Mandamus directing official respondents no.1 and 2 to provide adequate police protection to them by voicing an apprehension and threat to the same at the hands of private respondents no.3 to 9.

Case paper book has been perused.

The averments on record are utterly vague. On the basis of pleadings on record, this Court cannot infer any real apprehension as regards threat to the life and liberty of the petitioners.

Prayer of the petitioners, as such, cannot be gone into and entertained.

Petition is dismissed.
