By this common order, all the above mentioned petitions are being disposed of as the common question of law and facts is involved in all the petitions.

Learned counsel for the respondents while opposing the prayer of learned counsel for the petitioner for leading the additional evidence submitted that although the provision under Section 17 (A) of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 has already been omitted from the CPC, they still have no objection, if one last opportunity is granted to the petitioner to tender the documents, which are already on record.

In view of the statement made by learned counsel for the respondent in all the cases, the present revision petitions are allowed and one last opportunity is granted to the petitioner to lead their evidence only by way of tendering the documents, in accordance with law which are already on record.

However, the same shall be subject to deposit of ₹10,000/- as costs in each case.
