2. It transpires that evidence from the Respondents' side has already commenced and one Respondent witness has already been examined.

3. The Revision has been filed after a long delay. The impugned order closing the Petitioners' evidence was passed on 28th March, 2019 and the matter fixed for Respondents' evidence on 22nd April, 2019. The Revision Petition was filed only three days back on 1st July, 2019 and in the interregnum partial evidence from the side of the Respondents has already been recorded.

4. In the circumstances, there is no scope for this Court to interfere with the impugned order at this stage.

5. Dismissed.
