CHANDIGARH

CWP-18200-2019 (O&M)
Date of decision:-25.07.2019

Sneh Deep

.....Petitioner

versus

State of Haryana and others

.....Respondents

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA

Present:- Mr. D.P.S. Joura Advocate for the petitioner.

TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA, J.(ORAL)

The instant writ petition has been filed raising the following prayer:-

“For the issuance of a writ order or direction especially in the nature of Mandamus to all the official Respondents jointly and severally to initiate a fair and unbiased inquiry against the private respondent and further to take appropriate action against the private respondent, for tampering the official records of the education department, for providing wrong information to the education department, for causing losses to the government treasury for years by keeping the same into dark and for the suspected conspiracy to vanish her husband and children (possibly killing them all) in order to elope with her lover, in view of the circumstances mentioned above and in the justice, equity and fair play.”

The prayer clause itself is utterly vague. The assertions made in the petition as regards certain tampering having been made in the official records of the Education Department, would raise disputed questions of fact.

An issue with regard to suspected conspiracy is being raised as regards husband of respondent No.6 having disappeared in the year 1978. The locus of the petitioner to raise such an issue is beyond comprehension.

Instant petition is found to be utterly ill-conceived.

Dismissed.
