AVNEESH JHINGAN, J. (Oral)

The present contempt petition is filed alleging wilful disobedience of the order dated 26.3.2019 passed by this court in CWP No. 3151 of 2017. The operative part of the order is reproduced below:

“Counsel for the respondents undertakes that the case of the petitioners will be considered in view of the letter dated 14.8.2018 and an appropriate order in case of the petitioner will be passed for the grant of the benefit of leave encashment.

Let an appropriate order in case of the petitioner be passed within a period of two months from the receipt of copy of this order.

The present writ petition stands disposed of being not pressed as requested by the counsel for the parties.”

Learned counsel for the State, on instructions from Ritu Rani (LA), Department of Secondary Education (Aided Branch), Haryana, submits that the matter has been sent to the Finance Department and needful will be done within six weeks from today.

In view of the statement made, the contempt petition is disposed of as infructuous. However, the petitioners would be at liberty to revive the same if the statement made today in court is not adhered to.

In case the petitioners are forced to revive the contempt petition, costs may be imposed which shall be recovered from the defaulting official.
