The grievance challenged in the present petition is for bifurcation of Gram Panchayat, Raipur Majra, which have been reconstituted vide notification dated 13th of March, 2018, into two separate Gram Panchayats.

At the outset, Mr. Doabia submits that the elections have now been held and representatives have also been elected. Moreover, necessary notifications have also been issued and the elected representatives are holding the office(s) at present.

Learned State Counsel further submits that at the time of next elections, a fresh exercise is likely to be conducted well in time before the next election and in case the petitioner is aggrieved, he shall be at liberty to file a representation, which shall be considered by the concerned authority.
