AVNEESH JHINGAN, J. (Oral)

The present contempt petition has been filed alleging wilful disobedience of the order dated 19.3.2019 passed by this Court in CWP No. 7610 of 2019. The operative part of the order is reproduced below:

“In view of the above and without even ascertaining the correctness of the averments made in the petition, I deem it appropriate to dispose of the writ petition with a direction to respondent No. 5 to consider the claim of the petitioner against the backdrop of a legal notice dated 16.1.2018 (Annexure P-2) and to take a decision thereupon expeditiously and in any case within a period of eight weeks from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order.

Needless to observe that if any amount is found due the same would be released forthwith.

It is clarified that this Court has not examined the claim of the petitioner on merits.”

As per the order quoted above, the respondents had to take a decision on the legal notice expeditiously and in any case within a period of eight weeks from the date of receipt of a certified copy of the order.

There is nothing on record to show that certified copy of the order has been supplied to the respondent. Let atleast now certified copy be supplied to the respondents and in case of doing the needful, the respondents shall ensure compliance of the order dated 19.3.2019 within eight weeks from the receipt of certified copy of this order. In case of non-compliance, costs may be imposed which shall be recoverable from the defaulting official.

With the aforesaid observation, the contempt petition stands disposed of.
