Learned counsel for respondent No. 2 states that the relief, which was sought in the present writ petition, has been released alongwith interest, which is clear from the averments made in para 3 of the preliminary submissions and the details given in Annexure R-1.

Learned counsel for the petitioner is not able to controvert the said position keeping in view the affidavit filed in this regard by the respondents. He, however, states that the petitioner be given liberty to approach the respondents in case any payment for which the petitioner was entitled for and has not been released so far, by filing appropriate representation.

In view of the above, the present writ petition is disposed of as rendered infructuous with liberty to the petitioner to approach the respondents in case the petitioner thinks that any of his due is still to be paid by the respondents.
