AMIT RAWAL J. (ORAL)

After arguing at some length, both the counsel on instructions from their respective clients are ad idem that parties, being real brothers, are willing to arrive at a compromise and their statements in this regard may be recorded.

The respondent-plaintiff is willing to purchase the property at Collector rate, which is accepted by the appellant-defendant.

Statements of both parties are recorded and the same be formed as part of the record.

In view of statements made by parties, judgments and decrees of the Courts below are modified and the appeal is disposed of, in view of the compromise arrived at between the parties.
