CORAM:- HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA

TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA, J.

Petitioner – Garib Kalyan Sangthan, Rohtak has filed the instant petition praying for the issuance of a writ of prohibition restraining the respondents from impeding in the process of distribution of food grains at cheap rates to the poor and needy persons of the Society. Writ of mandamus is also sought directing the official respondents to make necessary and adequate arrangements at the time of distribution of food grains by the petitioner-Society to the poor and needy persons.

Learned counsel submits that an application has been made by the Society to the Deputy Commissioner, Rohtak, the Sub Divisional Magistrate, Rohtak, as also Superintendent of Police, Rohtak to grant permission to the Society to carry out the noble cause to distribute the food grains to the poor and needy persons, but no permission has been granted.

Learned counsel was repeatedly called upon by this Court to advert to any provision under which such a permission is required and on the strength of which the prayer for mandamus has been raised in the instant petition.

There is no response forthcoming to such query.

Learned counsel concedes that prior to March, 2019 also, the petitioner-Society had been engaged in distributing food grains at cheaper rates to the poor persons and without having applied for or having been granted permission from any Court.

In view of the above, no intervention is called for.

Petition disposed of.
