CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE FATEH DEEP SINGH

Mr. Mayur Karkra, Advocate for Mr. Aman Pal, Advocate for respondent No.2.

FATEH DEEP SINGH, J. (ORAL)

In light of the report of the Mediator, the parties have settled the dispute and written settlement/agreement in original dated 05.09.2019 has also been received.

Learned counsel for the complainant concedes to the same and does not oppose the same.

Both these petitions bearing No. CRM-M-28863-2019 filed by Sajid Wasim and No. CRM-M-25234-2019 filed by Qadir, have been arisen in the same FIR and are being taken up and disposed off together.

The allegations in this case have been levelled by the complainant-Asma Wajib, wife of petitioner-Sajid Wasim. In her complaint, the complainant alleges that their marriage was solemnized on 01.04.2018 where sufficient dowry articles including cash and gold ornaments were given. However, the accused side were not happy with the same, on account of which, she was tortured physically as well as mentally, leading to the registration of the present case.

Learned counsel for the petitioners inter alia contends that the parties have settled their dispute and has sought to place reliance on the settlement/agreement dated 05.09.2019.

On instructions from SI Raj Kumar, Police Station SGM Faridabad, the learned State counsel assisted by learned counsel for the complainant do not displace the facts and do not oppose the same.

Appreciating the submissions, its a pure matrimonial dispute and nothing is suggestive on the records as to the commission of offence under Section 307 of the Indian Penal Code. Since, the parties have settled the dispute and that nothing is to be recovered from the petitioners, the present petitions are allowed. Petitioners-Sajid Wasim and Qadir, would appear before the Investigating Officer within 15 days from today and shall fully cooperate in the investigations. On their doing so, the petitioners shall be released on interim bail to the satisfaction of arresting/investigating officer till submission of report under section 173 Cr.P.C. (challan). They shall also abide by the conditions specified under section 438 (2) Cr.P.C. Thereafter, on presentation of challan, petitioners will be permitted to furnish regular bail bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court.

The petitions stands disposed off accordingly.
