

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-30147-2019

Date of Decision: 18.07.2019

Amandeep Singh @ Amanjit Singh

.....Petitioner

Vs.

State of Punjab

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMOL RATTAN SINGH

Present: Mr. Suresh Kumar Rana, Advocate, for the petitioner.

AMOL RATTAN SINGH, J. (ORAL)

By this petition, the petitioner seeks the concession of anticipatory bail, he having been arraigned as an accused in an FIR alleging therein the commission of offences punishable under Sections 323/324/34 IPC.

As per the FIR, a blow with a sharp weapon ('Datar'), is attributed to the petitioner, which is stated to have resulted in a grievous injury to the complainant.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that even if the contents of the FIR are accepted at face value (which naturally the petitioner denies), the injury is on a non-vital part of the body, i.e. the elbow, and two co-accused of the petitioner have already admitted to bail by the learned Sessions Judge, Amritsar, on 01.07.2019.

He having produced a copy of that order, it is seen that Hargun Singh and Manpreet Singh were admitted to bail by that Court, on the ground that no grievous injury was attributed to either of them, with only exhortation attributed to Manpreet Singh.

There being an obvious difference in the role attributed to the petitioner and his co-accused, therefore with no comment made on the merits of the case, for or against the petitioner, I do not consider it appropriate to grant the concession of anticipatory bail.

However, in the event of the arrest of the petitioner, upon him filing appropriate application under Section 439 of the Cr.P.C, that application would be considered on its own merits and decided very expeditiously.
