Learned counsel for the petitioners has invited the attention of the Court to the order dated 19.07.2019 whereby while issuing notice of motion to the respondent-State, the interim protection was extended to the petitioner. The said order reads as under:-

“Learned counsel for the petitioners contends that the parties are closely related to each other and the FIR No.248 dated 16.06.2019 relates to the occurrence when the parties were talking about the compromise in respect of earlier case recorded at the instance of younger brother of present complainant whereby the FIR No.181 of 2019 was registered under Sections 323, 452 and 506 IPC at same Police Station. He contends that the allegations in the present FIR No.248 dated 16.06.2019 are regarding giving fist and leg blows resulting into simple injuries and majority of the offences are bailable.

Notice of motion for 19.11.2019.

Meanwhile, the petitioners shall join the investigation and would come present as and when called for and in the event of arrest, the petitioners shall be admitted to interim bail on their furnishing personal and surety bonds to the satisfaction of Arresting/Investigating Officer. The petitioners shall also abide by the conditions as specified under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.”

Learned counsel for the petitioners further contends that in deference to the said order, the petitioners submitted themselves before the Police and joined the investigation. According to him, the petitioners cooperated with the Police Authorities during the investigation and furnished requisite bonds to the satisfaction of the Investigating Officer/Arresting Officer.

Learned State counsel who is assisted by SI Naresh Kumar does not dispute this fact that the petitioners have joined the investigation. Learned counsel on instructions from SI Naresh Kumar further states that the petitioners are not required for custodial interrogation for the time being.

Considering above, the petition is allowed and the interim bail granted by this Court vide order dated 19.07.2019 is made absolute.
