

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

-.-

C.W.P No. 16185 of 2018 (O&M)
Date of decision: 12.03.2019

Jasmeen Kaur

.....Petitioner

Vs.

PGI of Medical Education & Research,
Chandigarh & Ors.

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE MAHESH GROVER
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE LALIT BATRA

Present:- None for the petitioner.

Mr. Amit Jhanji, Advocate, for the respondents.

....

MAHESH GROVER, J. (Oral)

There is no representation on behalf of the petitioner. Even on the previous date of hearing, the position was the same.

The prayer made in the petition is for converting six OBC seats, which according to the petitioner are lying vacant, into General Category and, thereafter, admit the petitioner to the course.

The course was to commence in the year 2018 and to conclude in 2020. As on today almost a year has elapsed and course would be at an advanced stage, therefore, no purpose would be served even if the prayer of the petitioner is accepted. Beside we notice that the learned counsel for petitioner had defaulted in appearance twice or thrice.

The petition is accordingly dismissed.

(MAHESH GROVER)
JUDGE

March 12, 2019

tripti

TRIPTI SAINI
2019.03.15 10:43
I attest to the accuracy and integrity of this document

(LALIT BATRA)
JUDGE