CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMIT RAWAL

Present: Mr. Naresh Kumar Bansal, Advocate for the petitioner.

AMIT RAWAL, J. (ORAL)

The petitioners have invoked the jurisdiction of this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a writ in the nature of certiorari, quashing order dated 04.04.2018 (Annexure P-1), vide which, the Deputy Commissioner of Police, Faridabad, had initiated the departmental enquiry on having been falsely implicated in a criminal case bearing FIR No.4 dated 03.04.2018 registered under Section 7 of Prevention of Corruption Act and under Section 201 of IPC, at Police Station SVB, Faridabad and subsequent proceedings.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that in both departmental and criminal proceedings, most of the witnesses are common/identical. In case the witnesses are examined in departmental proceedings, then it will affect their rights in defending the criminal proceedings. He relies upon notice of motion order dated 01.03.2013 passed in CWP No.3516 of 2013 titled as “Satbir Singh V/s State of Haryana and others”, whereby departmental proceedings were ordered to be kept in abeyance.

Mr. Hitesh Pandit, Addl. A.G., Haryana, submitted that there is no bar for continuation of departmental enquiry along with criminal case, which can be initiated and go side by side, but did not dispute the fact that few of the witnesses are common/identical in the proceedings.

This Court, vide order dated 17.07.2018, had already stayed the departmental proceedings.

I have heard learned counsel for parties, appraised paper book and of view that since few of witnesses are common/identical in both the proceedings, the Department shall not examine the common/identical witnesses, until and unless, they examined in the criminal proceedings first, as there is perceptible apprehension of disclosing the defence.

It is made clear that in case, the petitioner is found to delaying in cross-examination of same set of the witnesses in the criminal proceedings, this order will not come in the way of the Department to examine the said witnesses.

With the aforesaid observations, the present writ petition stands disposed of.
