

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-31207-2019

Date of Decision: 23.07.2019

Karan Athwal

.. Petitioner

Vs.

State of Punjab

..Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE INDERJIT SINGH

Present: Mr. Yashpal Thakur, Advocate for the petitioner.

Inderjit Singh, J. (Oral)

Petitioner Karan Athwal has filed this second petition under Section 438 Cr.P.C. for grant of anticipatory bail in case FIR No.338 dated 31.07.2016, registered at Police Station Civil Lines, Amritsar (Punjab), under Sections 379-B and 34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned State counsel and have gone through the record.

The first petition of the petitioner for anticipatory bail has been dismissed by this Court vide order dated 29.05.2019. It is specifically held that in view of nature and gravity of the offence and the serious allegations against the present petitioner and he being required for custodial interrogation, no ground is made out for grant of anticipatory bail. Even nothing has been shown that what are the changed circumstances.

Learned counsel for the petitioner argued that the compromise has been effected and a quashing petition on the basis of compromise has been filed.

From above facts, I find that rather it amounts to tempering with the evidence. Therefore, I do not find it a fit case where the petitioner is entitled to the benefit of anticipatory bail.

Therefore, finding no merit in the present petition, the same is dismissed.
