Learned counsel for the petitioner has invited the attention of the Court to the order dated 24.07.2019 whereby while issuing notice of motion to the respondent-State, the interim protection was extended to the petitioner. The said order reads as under:-

“Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that complainant is uncle of the petitioner, who had given his land on lease to the petitioner. According to him the petitioner suffered injuries at the hands of complainant and reliance has placed upon the photographs and the MLR to contend that actually the complainant had entered the house of the petitioner.

Notice of motion for 25.11.2019.

Meanwhile, the petitioner shall join the investigation and would come present as and when called for and in the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be admitted to interim bail on his furnishing personal and surety bonds to the satisfaction of Arresting/Investigating Officer. The petitioner shall also abide by the conditions as specified under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.”

Learned counsel for the petitioner further contends that in deference to the said order, the petitioner submitted himself before the Police and joined the investigation. According to him, the petitioner cooperated with the Police Authorities during the investigation and furnished requisite bonds to the satisfaction of the Investigating Officer/Arresting Officer.

Learned State counsel who is assisted by ASI Gurmukh Singh does not dispute this fact that the petitioner has joined the investigation. Learned counsel on instructions from ASI Gurmukh Singh further states that the petitioner is not required for custodial interrogation for the time being.
