-Appellant

Vs

Naresh Kumar

-Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJ MOHAN SINGH

Present: Mr. Yashvardhan Sharma, Advocate, for Mr. Rahul Sharma, Advocate, for the appellant.

Mr. B.K. Bagri, Advocate, for the respondent.

RAJ MOHAN SINGH, J. (ORAL)

CM No. 14598-C of 2017

This appeal has been preferred by the defendant-appellant against concurrent judgments and decrees passed by both the Courts below.

Now the application has been filed by the plaintiff-respondent on the premise that during pendency of the suit, parties have amicably settled the matter and as a result of that, plaintiff-respondent wishes to withdraw the suit itself.

Ordered accordingly.

As a consequence of withdrawal of suit, this appeal has to be disposed of as having been rendered infructuous.

In view of prayer made by the plaintiff-respondent, the application is allowed and appeal is taken up today.

Main case

Since, the suit itself is allowed to be withdrawn, therefore, as a consequence of that, the appeal is rendered infructuous.
