The matter has been discussed with the learned counsel for the appellant as also with the learned counsel for the Insurance Company. It has rightly been pointed out by the learned counsel for the Insurance Company that the learned tribunal has actually awarded a higher compensation to the appellant than she was entitled to. We have also considered the matter and have calculated the compensation.

Learned counsel for the appellant has also rechecked the calculation and is convinced that the amount already awarded is on the higher side. In view of the above, he submits that this appeal be dismissed as withdrawn.

It is ordered accordingly.
