CORAM:HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMIT RAWAL

AMIT RAWAL J. (ORAL)

Challenge in writ petition is to the order dated 08.03.2019 (Annexure P-4) whereby petitioners along with other Warders have been transferred as per terms and conditions of online transfer policy of 2018 introduced for the first time.

Mr. Dahiya, learned counsel appearing for petitioners submitted that policy envisages transfer only by 31.03.2019 and not mid session as it would cause great hardship to children of Warders studying in various schools and family members, therefore, transfers should be deferred till 31.03.2020.

Ms. Shruti Jain Goyal, DAG, Haryana submitted that aforementioned policy was challenged, which was upheld by this Court and as per order dated 14.03.2019 (Annexure P-2), this Court has upheld transfers of 350 Warders, who gave options as per transfer policy and directed the State to carry out options of remaining Warders. The aforementioned order was upheld in LPA.

I have heard learned counsel for parties and appraised paper book. There was a Model Code of Conduct owing to General Elections in entire country and therefore, Warders could not give option except petitioners along with other persons i.e. 350 in number. Once petitioners have opted for transfer, they cannot volte face and allege to defer transfer order dated 08.03.2019 in the month of August, 2019 till March, 2020.

No ground for interference is made out.

Dismissed.
