CM NO. 1318 OF 2019

On the asking of Court, Mr. P. K. Diwedi, Advocate accepts notice on behalf of respondents No.1 and 2 and submits that he has no objection if the application is allowed.

In view thereof, the application is allowed and main case is taken up today.

MAIN CASE

1. After arguing for some time, learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners would be satisfied if their writ petition be treated as representation and directions are given to the respondents to decide the same by passing a speaking order. He further submits that similarly situated employees have been given the benefit as claimed herein and that the petitioners are sanguine that their case will also be treated on parity with other employees.

2. Be that as it may, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, the writ petition is disposed of with a direction to the respondents to treat the writ petition as representation of the petitioners and decide the same by passing a speaking order, within two months from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order.

3. In the event, the petitioners are found entitled to any benefit as prayed by them in the petition, let the same be disbursed to them within a period of two months thereafter, with all consequential pecuniary benefits along with interest @ 6% per annum.
