

RAGHBIR SINGH AND ORS. VS JATTI SINGH AND ORS.

Present: Mr. R.S.Randhawa, Advocate for the applicants-appellants (CM-1877-C-2018).

Mr. S.S.Swaich, Advocate for applicants-respondents No.4 & 5 (CM-3484-C-2017).

CM-1877-C-2018

This is an application for permitting the applicants-appellants to make the deposit in terms of the order dated 22.07.2009 stating that applicant-appellant-Raghbir Singh had died after illness in the year 2014 and that is why after 2012 the deposit could not be made as soon as the legal representatives came to know they tried to make the deposit which could not be accepted by the Registry because there was a delay.

It is made clear that hence forth it would be the duty of the applicants-appellants to prepare a fixed deposit and hand over the FDR in favour of the Registrar General office for safe custody and it will not be enough to deposit the draft. Those drafts may also be returned for re-validation.

Counsel for the applicants-appellants states that the applicants-appellants would now make the deposit and for the delay will make additional deposit with simple interest @ 8% per year. Let the deposit be made within two months.

It is made clear that the applicants-appellants would not be liable to pay interest for those amounts for which the drafts were paid and could not be deposited by the Registry.

CM stands disposed of. Application by the branch also stands disposed of.

CM-3484-C-2017

Dismissed as having been rendered infructuous.
