RAKESH KUMAR JAIN, J. (ORAL)

This appeal has arisen from the judgment and decree dated 24.09.2009 passed in a petition filed under Sections 12 and 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 ('Act' – for short) by the respondent-husband, which has been allowed by the learned Additional District Judge (Fast Track Court), Fatehgarh Sahib.

Learned counsel for the parties has informed the Court that both the parties have started living together as husband and wife and are presently in Canada.

In view thereof, learned counsel for the respondent has submitted that he may be allowed to withdraw the petition and as a consequence thereof, the present appeal would become redundant.

Counsel for the appellant has not raised any objection as the parties are living together as husband and wife.

Therefore, we are of the considered opinion that the continuation of the appeal against the impugned judgment and decree dated 24.09.2009 would be futile exercise. Thus, the request made by the respondent-husband is hereby allowed and the petition filed by him i.e. HMA-16 dated 28.02.2008 is ordered to be withdrawn and as a result thereof, the present appeal which has been filed against the said judgment and decree is rendered redundant.

Dismissed as infructuous.
