CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI

Present: None for the petitioner.

Mr. Aman Bahri, Advocate, for the respondents.

HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI, J.(ORAL)

In the present writ petition, while issuing notice of motion, this Court had directed the respondents to look into the matter and pass a speaking order on the representation and legal notice served by the petitioner after granting him a personal hearing and the result of the said hearing should be produced before this Court.

Today, learned counsel for the respondents has produced the order dated 19.04.2019 by which a speaking order has been passed on the claim raised by the petitioner.

In the present writ petition, the grievance of the petitioner is non-release of the ACP benefits as well as the grant of annual increments.

Counsel for the respondents states that the benefit of ACP has already been allowed by the speaking order and the petitioner has been found entitled for a sum of Rs.7,90,584/-, which can be collected from the office by the petitioner at any point of time, as the cheque in this regard is already prepared and lying to be delivered to the petitioner.

In case of the increment, the said relief has been declined on the ground that the increment was stopped as a matter of punishment and the orders of punishment have never been challenged by the petitioner and therefore no grievance can be made by the petitioner in this regard.

As there is no representation on behalf of the petitioner, it is directed to the respondents that the order dated 19.04.2019 passed by them be communicated to the petitioner. Even the cheque which has been prepared be delivered to the petitioner after a period of seven days, in case, the petitioner does not come to claim the same within seven days from the date of passing of this order. Further liberty is granted to the petitioner to challenge the speaking order dated 19.04.2019, in case he wishes to do so.

The present writ petition stands disposed of in above terms.
