for the respondents.

AJAY TEWARI, J (ORAL)

Prayer in the present writ petition is for quashing of order dated 27.02.2014 (Annexure P-9) and issuance of writ in the nature of mandamus for keeping in abeyance recovery of the outstanding income Tax demand of Rs.1,93,58,92,795/- out of total demand of Rs.2,13,58,92,795/-.

On 23.09.2015 following order has been passed:-

“Short reply on behalf of the respondents filed in the Court today is taken on record.

As, admittedly, the appeal is pending adjudication before Income Tax Appellate Tribunal I, Bench, New Delhi, hearing of the writ petition is adjourned to 02.11.2015.

We hope that the Tribunal decides the quantum appeal, on the date already fixed or fortnight thereafter.

Interim order to continue.”

Today, learned counsel for the petitioner states that the appeal of the assessee has been partly allowed by the Tribunal and consequently, the present petition has become infructuous.

Dismissed having been rendered infructuous.
