Instant writ petition was filed by the petitioners seeking a mandamus for issuance of directions to the official respondents to protect their life and liberty by voicing an apprehension and threat to the same at the hands of private respondents No.4 to 7.

As per pleadings on record both the petitioners have attained the age of majority. They have entered into matrimony against the wishes of their elders and it is under such circumstances that they apprehend threat to their life and liberty.

Counsel for the petitioners has not come present.

Learned State counsel upon instructions from ASI Rajinder Singh, Police Station, Sadar Zira apprises the Court that the petitioners had even approached the Punjab State Human Rights Commission seeking identical relief and during the course of such proceedings statements of the petitioners as also private respondents No.4,6 and 7 i.e. mother and two maternal uncles of petitioner No.1

were duly recorded by the Deputy Superintendent of Police, Zira. As per the statements recorded, the private respondents are not opposing the marriage of the petitioners. The petitioners have also stated that they do not now apprehend any threat to their lives.

In view of the above, no directions are required to be passed in the instant writ petition and the same is disposed of as infructuous.
