

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-33051 of 2019

DATE OF DECISION: SEPTEMBER 19, 2019

RAJESH GOYAL

...PETITIONER

VERSUS

STATE OF PUNJAB AND OTHERS

...RESPONDENTS

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE MANOJ BAJAJ.

PRESENT: MR. AAYUSH GUPTA, ADVOCATE FOR THE PETITIONER.

MANOJ BAJAJ, J.(ORAL)

The petitioner has filed this petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for issuance of directions to the official respondents for taking action against private respondents on the basis of the representation dated 5.12.2016 and 1.2.2019 (Annexures P-5 and P-7) respectively. A perusal of these representations reveals that the petitioner has made a prayer for initiating the proceeding under Sections 182 and 195 IPC against the respondents No.4 and 5.

During the course of argument, it is not disputed by learned counsel that the petitioner pursuant to the complaint given by respondent No.4, FIR No.93 dated 6.4.2013 was registered at Police Station Division No.7, Ludhiana (Annexure P-3) and the petitioner was sent to face trial under Sections 420/120-B IPC, but the same ended in acquittal vide judgement dated 14.3.2018, passed by the Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Ludhiana.

Considering the above, the prayer of learned counsel for the petitioner for initiating the procedure under Section 182 IPC is completely misconceived and misplaced.

This Court does not any any merit in the petition for invoking the inherent powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C. Resultantly, the petition fails and it stands dismissed.
